

To be an active member of the North Shore Yacht Club you will likely incur these costs:

- Membership Dues. Member Categories and annual dues are described below
- Class Fees. Before being approved to use Club watercraft, you MAY be required to take class(es). See class fees below. All NSYC-owned watercraft users are required to pass a Skills, Swim & Safety Competency Assessment for each type of boat (sail, kayak, SUP) prior to use. Assessments are included in introductory classes. Classes begin in June and are subject to weather conditions. Class schedules are posted mid-spring and updated throughout the boating season.
- Parking Decal(s) for Park Ave. Boating Facility are available from the Park District. For details, costs and spring registration visit PDHP.org/boating. NSYC does NOT sell parking decals or rent storage spaces for private boats.

ALL members agree to follow NSYC Handbook Boating Rules and Equipment Use Rules, available at NorthShoreYachtClub.com, under “Member Forms & Docs.” NSYC adheres to all current state and local health and safety guidelines.

Please allow 5-10 days from time of NSYC enrollment to get your parking pass, arrange for swim/skills assessments, sign up for classes and attend Orientation Sessions.
